INSTITUTE.

 CONSULTATION, IN ALL CA ES, FREE

 CURES GUARANTEED, or PAY REQUIRED.

 IN ALL CASES WHERE CONFIDENCE IS REQUIRED THE UTMOST SECRESY MAINTAINED.

The above rules, established by Dr. J. C. Young in 1850, and which have done so [illegible] to insure the reputation of this Institute, are still adhered to, affording those in need of medical aid, the certainty of cure and the utmost confidence.

There is nothing of so great importance to the sick as to know where to find a physician whose skill and humanity give assurance of proper and delicate treatment. The Doctor would respectfully call the attention of those of both sexes who are suffering or in [illegible] to the invariable success that has marked the career of the Institute in the seventeen years of its existence.

It is unnecessary in this connection to enumerate all the complaints treated at the Institute, but the Doctor feels it his duty to call especial attention to that terrible scourge,

SEMINAL WEAKNESS,

That is sapping with its insidiousness the very life of its victims; in the treatment and cure of which the Institute has earned so enviable a reputation.

READ! READ

I am aware that by dwelling upon so unlnviting [illegible] the decay of manly vigor through the [illegible] of life, the ignorant may [illegible] but the [illegible] to point out to those [illegible], the true cause of their [illegible] to be forced into abeyance [illegible] the terrible [illegible] of Seminal W[illegible] be but the practical specialist who devotes his [illegible] but its presence can be [illegible] I [illegible] by noting the following [illegible] Weakness of the back and limbs, [illegible] loss of [illegible] power; nervous[illegible] [illegible] panied by hot hands [illegible] short breath, flushings of the [illegible] confusion of the mind; loss of [illegible] colorless; slight [illegible] trembling; palpitation of the heart [illegible] variable temper, etc.

YOUNG MAN, if you experience any of the [illegible] above, pause to [illegible] in which you [illegible] You may feel [illegible] the vice of self a[illegible] you have the seeds of weak[illegible] and their [illegible] maining [illegible] the [illegible] of your [illegible] abject being [illegible] itself at once. There is [illegible] the while the patient is being [illegible] of the Heart, Lungs, Brain, or [illegible] he sinks into a [illegible] debility that [illegible] the list of the [illegible] of the terrible [illegible]

It is the [illegible] of the complaint to [illegible] the poor victim but little [illegible] In a single instant it may wither your [illegible] and blast your honest aspirations [illegible] by a natural impulse [illegible] This is an error of the first magnitude, for [illegible] for the exigencies of the [illegible] and he finds himself in a [illegible] in but the slightest hope of [illegible] result in [illegible] and degenerate [illegible] whether married or single, [illegible]

[illegible]ORTANT TO FEMALES

When a female is in trouble or afflicted with [illegible] requires medical or surgical assistance, the inquiry [illegible] "Where is there a physician competent to [illegible] and whose respectable standing in society [illegible] him to the confidence of the community [illegible] understanding how imperatively necessary [illegible] requirements are, feels called upon to interpose [illegible] the attention of the afflicted to the fact that he [illegible] a Professor of Obstetrics and Female Diseases [illegible] years, and is fully qualified to administer [illegible] and surgically, not in a superficial [illegible] through a manner as years of study and [illegible] both in hospitals and private families—can [illegible] from the hands of the unqualified [illegible] Therefore families can rely upon him [illegible] All in affliction can find in him one [illegible] sympathise with and befriend them in [illegible] the utmost confidence can be [illegible] consultation by letter or otherwise, free. ST. LOUIS, Oct. 12.—The Republicans held an immense torchlight display last night. There were over three thousand torches in the line. The procession was 45 minutes passing a given point. Speeches were made from four stands. Many private residences were illuminated.

A Republican special says that Marcus Horlston was assassinated in the steamer Hesper while lying at the wharf. The Ku Klux Klan has broken up registration in several counties.

The Democrats held an immense torchlight procession on Saturday night. The Times claims there were 7,500 torches in the line. There were 150,000 people on the streets. Many buildings were splendidly illuminated. The display [illegible]

The Republican special says that Forney publishes a letter in the Chronicle giving his opinion, after careful canvass, that the Republicans will carry Pennsylvania by 15,000 majority. The whole batch of registration in the city of Philadelphia for a month or six weeks back will be thrown out.

A call has been issued by a number of Democrats in New York for a mass meeting to support Gen. Grant at the Cooper Institute. The call invites those Democrats and anti-rebels who wish to retain the entire Union [illegible] those principles which are fair and just, who believe that the debt incurred in the suppression of the rebellion is a sacred obligation, who insist that the plighted faith of the nation shall not be violated, that its name and credit must not be disgraced, who desire to treat States in rebellion with clement justice, but who will not consent to a surrender of the Government to the Southern rebels who are insulting that the rebellion was right and boasting of their continued devotion to the lost cause; who oppose the repudiation doctrine of the New York platform and the revolutionary manifesto of one of its candidates, and who believe the peace, safety and prosperity of the whole country will be secured by the election of Grant. The call is signed by a great number of well known Democrats—Wm. F. Havemeyer, Moses Taylor, M. Chittenden, [illegible] M. Westervelt, [illegible] Stanford, [illegible] Hiram Walbridge, Wm. Curtis, Charles A. Secor, J. W. Hammersley, [illegible] Stallins, Charles Blake, Alex. T. Stewart, Wm. H. Webb, C. S. [illegible] and Henry Mays.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—Advices from South America are to Sept. 12th. The earthquakes still continued on the southern coast of Peru, but caused no damage. Six thousand houses were destroyed by the previous shocks in Areguipa, which would cost forty millions to rebuild. [illegible] suffered but little damage. Provisions have been received all along the coast from Valparaiso and Peru. The sufferers are abundantly supplied at Iguiquane. 167,000 quintals of saltpetre were carried away by the sea. The yellow fever had appeared in Peru. There were [illegible] on [illegible] at Callao. Stanhope and Provost, American merchants, died at Lima.

Senor Vicuena Mechena, of New York notoriety, has commenced action for libel against several papers of Chili. He made a defense before the Chilean House of Representatives stating that he was authorized to subsidize the American press and get up public meetings in the United States in favor of his mission.

Heavy rains have interrupted travel. The business of the Chili railroads is greatly damaged.

Valparaiso papers state that there had been heavy rains about Valparaiso. Some land slides had occurred which interrupted traffic, killed several persons and caused a suspension of business. The sea was excited and three launches were swamped. The earthquake of the 15th was also felt at the Island of Juan Fernandez. The sea leaving its natural limits, [illegible] with great force upon the Island, carrying [illegible] out [illegible] Nothing of value was destroyed. No lives lost and no serious results were experienced by the natives. Since the occupation of that territory by R[illegible] [illegible] we believe a similar event has occurred.

The New York Sensation

[illegible] WATER STREET PRAYER MEETING AT TOMMY HADDEN'S—JOHN ALLEN TO STUDY FOR THE MINISTRY.

The New York Tribune continues a further report of the revival in Water street. After some [illegible] of matters at John Allen's house, the reporter [illegible]

Profound, therefore, as was the sensation produced in Water street when John Allen closed his house and invited Christian men and women to come and pray with him, greater surprise was occasioned by the inauguration of prayer meetings at Tommy Hadden's.

Tommy's house is at No. 374 Water street, and as one makes his way along the thoroughfare from John Allen's place he is constantly stumbling against the dirty, screaming children that block up the sidewalk, and his nostrils are greeted by foul stenches that rise from the gullies or come out of the narrow alley ways. Just before reaching the place an old junk shop is passed, the low front of which is hung over with old chairs, bits of rope and old pieces of iron, while within the walls and ceiling remind one of Dicken's description of the home of Little Nell. Dance houses and [illegible] and sailors' lodging houses line up the street. Hadden's house itself is a low frame structure very similar to John Allen's, and its interior is similarly arranged.

Over the outer door is a large sign containing Mr. Hadden's name in full, and the announcement that the place is a seaman's lodging house, painted in bold letters. Within the first room was the bar room, though the liquor had been removed from sight yesterday. On the walls hang a number of cheap prints representing ships, an eruption of a volcano and the portraits of voluptuous looking women. Over the shelves of this room hang two ostrich eggs, ornamented with pictures of ships, a large sailor, and several other articles. Behind the bar during most of the meeting, stood the proprietor, not a very brutal looking man, dispensing ice water to the sweltering crowd that filled the place. The interior room is somewhat smaller than the one at John Allen's, is low and very poorly ventilated. In one corner of the room a number of shelves containing cooking utensils showed that the place was probably used for the combined purposes of kitchen, dining and sitting room. Around the [illegible] there is a row of low benches and in the centre was a small table. The crowd that gathered around this place was probably the roughest that has yet congregated at any one of the Water street meetings, though those who filled the house were of more respectable appearance. Many of those who stood in front of the doors seemed to have gone down in the scale of degredation till it seems as though, to use an expression which our reporter heard there, "they had about reached the hard pan."

Hard, rough looking men, bearing the marks of ten, twenty, thirty, or even forty years of sin and dissipation, stood on the curb stone and made their comments as the people passed in. The presence of several policemen restrained them some, but remarks were made such as, "Well, it is Kit Burns' turn next, and he might vary the show with a dog fight, or the like." "Well, the devil has changed [illegible] Tommy Hadden at last." "Why don't you go in, Jim, and get your soul saved."

Within, the crowd consisted principally of those who have been at Mr. Allen's during the past two weeks. The exercises were conducted by Mr. Arnold, of the Howard Mission, who, after reading a passage of Scripture, said that they came there as a company of sinners invited by their good friend Hadden to spend an hour in prayer, and he asked them to forget the things of the past, the evil associations of the place, and to think of it only as the House of God. Mr. Arnold was followed by others who spoke and prayed earnestly. A gentleman announced that a young man recently released from State Prison was in the room, and asked the prayers of those present. Supplications were offered for his salvation, and on being invited to speak he said that he had relatives in the city—a father, mother and sisters—but that he felt ashamed to go home. He afterward called on Mr. Arnold at the Howard Mission.

In John Allen's house the audience consisted mainly of respectable looking persons, the majority of whom were ministers and professing Christians. The Rev. Chester Van Allen, brother of the "Wickedest Man," opened the meeting, but was unable to proceed on account of ill health. The speeches were all brief, and much fervor was manifested.

During the meeting John Allen visited the meeting at Tommy Hadden's, and, on his return finding many persons in the street, organized an outdoor meeting, which he placed in charge of [illegible] Corbett, who was present. In conversation with a lady, Mr. Allen said that he was "going to study for the clergy right along." After the meeting he stood at the door and took the hand of each one who passed out, inviting them to come again, and pronouncing a blessing upon them.

Interest in these meetings has spread into every portion of the city, and the managers are receiving invitations to hold meetings in other wards. A West Side warehouse keeper said to one of the clergymen: "I am not a religious man, but I want you to come over and hold meetings in my warehouse." The meeting at John Allen's will be continued every day for the present. After the meeting a number of ministers and others went to the Howard Mission to consult as to the best method of conducting the revival.

At a Seymour and Blair barbecue held a short time since at Forsythe, Georgia, Benjamin H. Hill, the great Democratic champion of that State, made a speech which was tumultuously cheered by the rebels present. In the course of his remarks he referred to the Union men of the Commonwealth in these words:

"The Bible speaks of them. The wicked abound [illegible] and the vilest rule.' These men are false to their own race. They will deceive and demoralize your society. They are false to [illegible] But there is one remark I wish the people to [illegible] well. I hate them. It is a Christian duty [illegible] to heaven [illegible]

The Democrats have a great deal to say about the cost of the Freedmen's Bureau. Some of their [illegible] spent over $100,000,000 [illegible] was spent in feeding [illegible] The Bureau was established in January, 1864. The whole expense [illegible] 1868 [illegible] was [illegible] by the Bureau [illegible] were distributed to poor white persons, who had been reduced by the rebellion to a state of starvation, and who would, but for the liberality of the Government, have starved.

We have an aversion to seeing white men sold at auction, merely because they are incapacitated for taking care of themselves, and we believe the white men of Oregon share in that prejudice.—Herald.

While we endorse the substance of this declaration, we dissent emphatically from the mean insinuation which it contains. No man but a besotted Copperhead and an admirer of human slavery—a wrong which the enlightened spirit of this age, the world over, holds to be a crime—could have penned that sentence. The writer virtually says that he has no aversion to seeing black men sold at auction, and that he believes the white men of Oregon have in them so much of the spirit of slavery that they have no aversion to it. If he speaks for the recreant sons of New England who are proverbially known as the meanest of mankind and the most bigoted supporters of despotism and oppression, or for the rebels from Missouri and other States who recently tried to destroy the country to save slavery—if he means by these classes the "white men of Oregon," doubtless he is right. They would have no aversion to seeing the [illegible] block set up again, and all persons who have a tinge of negro blood sold to the highest bidder. The writer above quoted would have made a valiant hero of a cat o' nine tails on a Southern plantation under the old "Democratic" regime.

STATE ITEMS.

A case of small-pox has occurred at Scott[illegible]g.

Hen Owen is said to be electioneering for Seymour and Blair among the Pitt River Indians.

Mr Handsaker has moved from Oakland to Canyonville, where he will engage in the butchering business.

The County Court of Lane has granted the right of way to railroads which purpose [illegible] that county.

Says the New York Independent: Let it be remembered, and repeated, and again repeated until no one can forget it, that every dollar of our heavy burdens was the result of Democratic treason and misrule. No Republican seceded; no Republican fired upon the flag; no Republican encouraged the rebellion. That upheaval of pride and crime was wholly Democratic; and its career from its birth to its throttling—for it is not yet dead—was "conducted," as pirate Semmes happily expressed it, "on Democratic principles."

Another Oracle on Constitutional Law.

The Albany (Oregon) Democrat, imitating many of the other organs of its party, fills its columns with such cheap literature as the following:

> We suppose that there has not been so great an amount of persistent misrepresentation and lying on any one great question as upon this [taxing bonds]. The truth is simply this: The Supreme Court have decided that U. S. bonds cannot be taxed, by the States unless Congress pass a law authorizing the States to tax them. This we say is substantially the truth of the matter, and no amount of falsification will be able to alter it.

The "substantial truth of the matter" is that the Supreme Court has never decided any such thing. We challenge the Democrat to produce proof that such a decision as it speaks of has ever been rendered. If the editor is not himself conversant with the jurisprudence of the country let him get assistance from Smith, Grover, the Young Lion of Linn, or any other source which he deems reliable, to show where such a decision may be found. Not one of them, from the Congressman elect down to Jasper Johnson of the Courier, can produce a word from Supreme Court decisions to support their position. On the other hand the best jurists of the nation have held that the States not only cannot tax the bonds, but Congress cannot grant the State power to tax them. And the Supreme Court in Van Allen vs. The Assessors, 3 Wallace 585, have affirmed this doctrine. The Supreme Court have therefore decided the very opposite of what the Democrat and its co-workers in falsehood assert. In discussing this very matter nearly forty years ago Daniel Webster observed that as it was the Constitution and not the law which prohibits the States from taxing Government securities, "it was not in the power of Congress to relieve the States from this Constitutional prohibition. 'We cannot,'" said he in his place in the Senate, "[illegible] the Constitution." It is therefore utterly impossible either for the States to tax the bonds of their own will, or for Congress to confer on the States a grant of power to tax them. The Supreme Court, in the case above cited declares that as the States are excluded by the Constitution from taxing the stocks of the Government, Congress cannot confer upon a State this sovereign right of taxation, nor is a State competent to receive a grant of any such power from Congress.

In one particular the Democrat tells the truth. It "supposes that there has not been so great an amount of persistent misrepresentation and lying on any one great question as upon this." And of this persistent misrepresentation and lying, the Democrat has done, and as we have shown is continuing to do, its full share. Not a year ago that paper was arguing that the States could now tax the bonds. It has given up this position and advanced to another,—saying "The Democratic party would not have these bonds taxed until Congress shall have passed a law granting the States this power." Perhaps it is but justice to the editor's intentions to suppose that he is entirely ignorant of what he is talking about.

The San Francisco Call is also discussing (!) the subject of bond taxation. That sheet is the cheap and nasty organ of the ignorant rabble of San Francisco. It boasts a daily circulation of 14,000 copies, and addresses itself to its readers in this wise:

> Previous to 1861 the bonds of the United States were taxed the same as other personal property, because Congress did not forbid taxation. Congress can now withdraw its prohibition against taxing bonds hereafter to be issued, and should that body do so the State Governments would have the same right to tax the bonds that they have to tax horses, mortgages and the like.

The bonds of the United States were not taxed in 1861. Attempts were often made to tax them but they were forbidden by the Supreme Court. As it is the Constitution and not the law which forbids the taxation, Congress cannot "withdraw the prohibition." The act of Congress of 1862, declaring the bonds exempt, did not change the law, but only gave notice of the existence of the rule or law exempting them which is established in the Constitution. At almost every period since the formation of the Constitution there have been Government bonds outstanding, and the States have never been allowed to tax them. During Buchanan's administration many millions of bonds were issued, some of them at twelve per cent interest, and all were totally exempt from taxation. While the Democratic party controlled the Government and borrowed money on its credit they never said one word about taxing bonds, but they are now extremely anxious to tax, and to repudiate to that extent, the debt which was incurred in subjugating the Southern wing of their party.

"Shamelessness."

The Herald objects because

> The OREGONIAN tells us that when the South surrendered, "the country supposed that the peace which followed would be permanent." But the paroled rebels, when their muskets were wrested from their hands, seized the ballot and went to voting Democratic in the expectation, as they declare, of regaining by this means all they had lost in the war.

This the Herald maintains was no offence at all. This determination avowed by the rebels of regaining all they had lost in the war that paper thinks was quite right. The Radical party (which is but another name for the Union people of the country) were very unjust and unreasonable to object to the programme! When we say that the offence of the South was in voting Democratic with an avowed design of restoring the Lost Cause, the Herald rejoins that the South is doing just right, and that it is shamelessness in the Union party to raise any objection!

Vallandigham is the man who proposed Seymour's nomination in the Tammany Convention. He is a candidate for Congress in the Third District of Ohio. The following from one of his anti war speeches while he was a member of Congress some years ago shows under what flag he trains:

> Then, sir, I am not a Southern man either—although in this most unholy and unconstitutional crusade against the South in the midst of the insurrection and murder to which she has been subject and with which she is still threatened—with the torch of the incendiary and the dagger of the assassin suspended over her, my most cordial sympathies are with her.

The New York [illegible] says: "There are fifty men in the South who control its public opinion and its political action. Yes, and these fifty men are all howling for another rebellion, and averring that the Lost Cause is to be fully regained by the election of Seymour and Bla

"The White Man's Party."

At the election last June each of the Democrats of Portland carried to the polls a piece of paper on which the words "White Man's Ticket" were broadly printed. All day long little was heard except the shouts of noisy bummers and crapulous pot-valiant heroes crying "Here's the white man's ticket! Vote the white man's ticket!" and other expressions of a similar kind. But down South in many localities a different state of things exists. A rare condition of social equality is now existing there among white and black Democrats, who are without distinction of color stumping, eating and sleeping together. The Memphis Avalanche of Sept 6th contains this:

> The work goes bravely on. Our colored speakers are doing great good. Twelve months ago there was not a single Democratic Club in Tennessee. There is now one in every county in this district and we may say a colored Club in almost every district in each county. Lawrence Jones, a colored speaker, is doing good service. * * At Gum Grove, eight miles from Memphis, there was a large and enthusiastic assemblage of people white and colored yesterday. The object was political speaking, a basket dinner and the formation of a colored Democratic Club. At least 2,000 people were present, and the arrangements made by the Committee were such as to provide for all who desired to partake of the feast of good things provided for the physical man. Eloquent addresses were delivered by Colonel O. Yeager and Colonel Douglass. The following named colored speakers also addressed the assemblage: Foster Demons, Eli Glass and F. M. Turner.

We may also note here that the colored voters of New Orleans have to withstand the seductive influences of such lines as these which are sung to them by the Blair Guards of that city:

All ye colored Democrats,
Our cause is just and bright,
Go [illegible] in us in the issue
And God defend the right.
Seymour will protect you
In all that's just and fair,
And in the final [illegible] vote for
With our vote for Frank P. Blair.

Let all those who believe in free homes for free men, and who think that the millions of acres of Government land should be enjoyed by free white men instead of being turned into immense slave plantations, vote for the party which resisted the aggressions of the slave power and forever prohibited slavery from the Territories then free and at the same time dedicating those Territories for the homes of freemen. The National Homestead Bill had a faint support from a few Democrats but James Buchanan, then President, vetoed the bill, because it was not in the interest of slavery. Such are Democratic professions, and such is Democratic practice. They profess love for the poor man, but when it comes to practice they belie their professions. Notwithstanding their record on this subject they now come before the people demanding in their national platform the "distribution of the public lands as widely as possible," endeavoring to steal from the Republican party the honors it has won by giving the people free homesteads in spite of Democratic opposition!

Talking about the debt the Sacramento Union says: "We have expended a little money in a way extremely disagreeable to the personal and private feelings of this rebel Copperhead coalition. We trust they will accept all due apologies for it on the ground that we couldn't help it. They would have powder and ball, and those little luxuries are expensive. We gave them the best we could find and charged them nothing for it and we really think they ought to be satisfied."

Copperheads are delighted with the term, "carpet bagger." It seems to mean a person of short residence. But it wants definiteness. How short a period is necessary to make a "carpet bagger?" We must be careful about that. For just now the voting "carpet baggers" are decidedly numerous. Look at our friends from Germany and Ireland! How long since they left the banks of the Rhine and the Shannon? How long since they have been made citizens?

A Copperhead paper up the valley tells its one hundred and fifty readers that the "Radical party is the same rascally, thieving party to day it ever has been." And of course the Democratic party is to day the same pure patriotic party it was when last in power,—when saintly Floyd, virtuous Cobb, honest Toucey and all that class of Democrats managed the affairs of Government.

Democratic Jewels.

The great Democratic party will rise in its might and majesty, and pulverize and purge the Congress, just as Cromwell purged the long Parliament. The signs of the times are pregnant with resistance to Radical tyranny, and the dagger of Brutus may aid in our redemption from Radical rule, ruin and usurpation.—Mobile Tribune.

THE SPIRIT OF WILKES BOOTH STILL LIVES, thank God! Take courage! Seymour, Blair, and THE REVIVAL OF THE GREAT CAUSE, is the motto of every true man.—Pine Bluff Vindicator.

I have been a Democrat all my life—before the war, during the war, and since the war—and fought the war on the principle of Democracy.—Pirate Semmes speaking for Seymour and Blair.

What civilized people on the earth would refuse to associate with themselves in all the rights and honors and dignities of their country such men as Lee and Johnson?—F. P. Blair, Democratic candidate for Vice President.

What the Confederacy fought for will be won by the election of Seymour and Blair.—Governor G. B. Vance.

How clear that note used to ring upon the air of Vicksburg of a night in years long past! It will make the air resonant from the Rio Grande to the Potomac at the last irresistible charge next November, cheering the hearts of our Democratic friends and deadening those of our oppressors. Stand by for that yell.—Mobile Register.

The cause for which Stonewall Jackson fell can not be in vain, but in some form will yet triumph.—Wade Hampton.

If it is true that slavery must be abolished to save the Union, then the people of the South should be allowed to withdraw themselves from the Government which cannot give them guarantees by its terms.—Seymour in Oct. 1861.

I do not care for the platform. It tells a lie in the first resolution. It says secession is dead! Secession is not dead, it is more alive than ever.—Governor Wise.

NASBY'S BOOK—A SPIRITED DEDICATION.—Nasby has gone extensively into the advertising business. He is as accomplished in his knowledge of the art of advertising as he is inimitable in his conception and treatment of the inextinguishable fires uv the Dimocrisy. The titulary elaboration of his subject and the touching sentiment which pervades his dedication must be read to be appreciated. It runs thus:

THE AUTHOR.

What the Oregon Legislature is thought of Abroad.

We have heretofore remarked that the course which the Oregon Legislature is pursuing is calculated to bring the State into contempt abroad, and that it was shameful that at so important a period in our history as this Oregon is put in such a position. To show what our neighbors think of the action of the Legislature we append the following:

From the Alta California.

> The Democratic Legislature of Oregon [illegible] in somewhat [illegible] to say the least [illegible] the illegality [illegible] the ratification of the 14th Amendment and a request for Senators Corbett and Williams to resign. The Oregon [illegible] ought to know by this time that requests to Senators to resign are only taken by the world at large as evidence of the utter idiocy of the men who pass them, unless there is something in the conduct of the Senators other than their political course which makes them objectionable to the State. Politics are constantly changing in different States, and if a Senator was recalled each time the Legislature of his State had a freak there would be [illegible] in the Government of the country. If the Oregon Democrats fancy that their ineffective request has reflected any credit on the men who made it they have fallen into an egregious [illegible] under their Senators, legally elected and firm in their places, will laugh at them, and people of all political parties will join in the laugh.

From the San Francisco Bulletin.

> The Democratic members who are a majority in the Oregon Legislature are evidently on their first page. The first act was a resolution to repeal an amendment to the Federal Constitution which having been ratified by a majority of the States, including Oregon, could no more be repealed by the rebels of Oregon, or the act of that State made a nullity, than could the Federal Union be repealed. The Democrats of Oregon do not appear to be troubled just now any more with constitutional scruples than they did a short time ago when they were more actively engaged in destroying the Constitution and dividing the country. If they have got a tolerably sound [illegible] lawyer in the party up there, and he will listen to his advice for five minutes, they might be inclined to seek a less ridiculous notoriety. The Oregon Pirates figure as extensively here on the Barbary Coast, but at present they seem to be at home in the Oregon Legislature.

A resolution censuring Senators Williams and Corbett and instructing them to resign was a natural sequel to the resolution to repeal an amendment to the Constitution. There is one grain of truth in the Senatorial resolution. The Oregon Senators do not represent the disloyal element of that State nor the vindictive meanness either in the Legislature or out of it. But they represent the intelligence, the steadfast patriotism, the generous aspirations and real progress of the people. It so happens that Oregon is honored by having the two ablest Senators in Congress now in that body from the Pacific coast. They have made their record, and up to this time have done nothing unworthy of the high trusts committed to them. One evidence of their real worth and usefulness is that they are not acceptable wherever loyalty is a special offence. Senators Williams and Corbett have more than once rendered excellent service to the people of California and have never neglected, so far as we know, any worthy interest of the people of Oregon. They will be likely to remain in Congress some time after the movers and supporters of this resolution have been forgotten.

Facts on the Railroad Question.

We have received the following under the above heading. Persons reading will judge for themselves:

1. The Act of Congress granting the lands required the Oregon Legislature to designate the Company which should receive them.
2. The last Legislature designated the Oregon Central Railroad Company.
3. What is known as the "West Side Oregon Central Railroad Company" presented its Articles of Incorporation to that Legislature and solicited the lands, and no other Company had any Articles of Incorporation in existence at that time.
4. The Act of Congress also required that the Company designated to receive the lands, shall file its Assent with the Secretary of the Interior, at Washington City, prior to July 25th 1867, and if such "Assent" was not so filed the grant of lands became totally null and void. (See sections 6 and 8 of the Land Grant Act.)
5. The West Side Company was the only Company filing its "Assent" within the time allowed by Congress, and its "Assent" was accepted. After the time allowed by Congress expired and after the time for building the road had been extended, the East Side Company tried to file an "Assent," and its papers were rejected. See the following letter from the Secretary of the Interior to A. M. Loryea, Vice President of the East Side Company.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
Washington, D. C., July 17, 1868.

SIR—I have received your letter of the 16th inst. and accompanying paper purporting to be an acceptance by the Oregon Central Railroad Company of the grant made by the act of July 25th, 1866.

By law the Company was required to file an assent to its terms and condition within one year. That time expired July 25th 1867 and this paper if sufficient for that purpose could not now be received.

I state for your information, that J. Gaston, President of the Oregon Central Railroad Company, within the time prescribed in that act, filed an assent which was received.

In compliance with your request I enclose a copy of my letter of the 8th instant to Mr Gaston, in regard to maps to be filed in this Department.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,
O. H. BROWNING, Secretary.

A. M. LORYEA, Present.

6. It follows from the above that the West Side Company is entitled to the land, while the East side has no legal claim, and if the West Side Company does not get it, it will be lost to the State.
7. The West Side Company completed its incorporation on November 21st, 1866. See the Secretary of State.

The East Side Company formed their incorporation on the 22d day of April 1867. See East Side Company's stock book and journal of proceedings and their corporate "seal."

8. The original Incorporators of the Oregon Central Railroad Company, known to the last Legislature, were Joel Palmer, F. A. Chenoweth, J. H. Mitchell, J. S. Smith, I. R. Moores, E. D. Shattuck, Jesse Applegate, Edward R. Geary, S. Ellsworth and H. W. Corbett, and of these ten, only two (I. R. Moores and J. S. Smith) went into the Articles of Incorporation of the East Side Company.
9. Six of the ten, to wit: F. A. Chenoweth, J. H. Mitchell, Joel Palmer, E. R. Geary, S. Ellsworth and H. W. Corbett, went into the organization of the West Side Company by authorizing J. Gaston to open its stock books.
10. The West Side Company ask a re-affirmation of its rights to the lands, not as a confirmation of their title but simply to remove doubts in the public mind, and the question before the Legislature is not whether one or the other Company is most likely to build a road, but it is one of [illegible]

Use none but the Best.—Thousands of worthless preparations are scattered broadcast over the land purporting to be SPECIFICS for Consumption. Some may possess a little merit but when it is known beyond the possibility of successful contradiction that NEW BILL'S PULMONARY SYRUP has accomplished all that is claimed for it, as a remedy for ALL affections of the CHEST and LUNGS it seems little short of criminal neglect for persons requiring such a remedy to waste the golden moment in experimenting with any other. It is equally applicable in all cases young or old

For the Bath.—Redington & Co's. WILLIAM KOEHLER,

DENTIST.
OFFICE—Southwest corner Front and Yamhill Streets opposite E J Northrup & Co s Hardware Store
I am now making, amongst numerous other styles of ARTIFICIAL TEETH, the improved Vulcanite Plates of Dr G W Cool's Patent patented Dec 3, 186 the improvement of which consists in lining the entire concave surface with fine gold. It not only makes the plate double as strong and cleanlier than the common Vulcanite Plate. It also can by it be made considerably thinner and lighter whereas the price is but little above that for common plates. Call and see specimens
N B —Dentists wishing to secure the office right for Dr G W Cool's Improved Vulcanite Plates can have it made out to them by applying at this office
N B —To strangers I would say that a constantly increasing Dental Practice for the last five years in this city will be a sufficient guarantee for them to receive a First Class and Finished Piece of Work. Numerous testimonials to the same can be given at the office

A Spicy Letter.

Charles H. Webb has resumed his "John Paul" letters to the Springfield (Mass.) Republican. From the last one we take this extract concerning his watering place experiences:

"Lake George is chiefly famous for burying grounds and the Fort William Henry Hotel—the conduct of the latter largely contributing to the population of the former. I arrived there (at the hotel—not the burying grounds) at 12 o'clock o'night, after riding sixteen miles on the top of an uncomfortable coach, my legs the while twisted up under my long and lean body, in grasshopper fashion. A room had been engaged for the companion of my sorrow and myself. But on our being shown to it, four pairs of boots were found outside the door. Being opened with a skeleton key (there is many a skeleton in that house), no one was found inside; the beds were unoccupied. But the air was close, and above all there hovered an astounding and perceptible mustiness, a smell of old cheese. Soon after, falling into a persistent and impertinent troubled sleep, I was roused from dreams of Indians by stings and arrows of some most outrageous misfortune. Striking a light and an attitude, I examined things and uncovered and discovered 5,999,901 (I like to be exact and particular about numbers) comarades de lit. Evidently they had been there all winter, and intended to fight it out on that line all summer; so, as they had priority of claim as well as the advantage in point of numbers, I wrapped up what was left of me in my large overcoat, and with my valise for a pillow, camped the night on a floor.

In the morning we made a thorough investigation and such a sight you never saw, and never may you, I pray Heaven. The mystery of the boots at the door, the night before, became clear to our minds at once. The body and breeches belonging to them had been eaten up by these terrible things—and the boots would have been had they not been set outside. Scooping up as many of them (bugs not boots) as a pillow-case would hold, I tied up the mouth securely and sent it to the office with a card attached, bearing the compliments of room 184. The result was that we got another room (somewhat better than our former company,) but the mattresses even there seemed to be stuffed with corn-cobs and broken crockery, and like a traveler who has once been attacked by tigers, I dreaded the jungle of sleep with terror; comparing notes with others, I find all declare that there is not a bed fit to sleep on in the whole house.

Spring beds one might dispense with, but why don't you put in a few Summer ones? 'Entertainment for man and beast' should not be construed to mean that the beasts are to be entertained on the man!

Saratoga this year is the same as ever—only a little more so. The opening of Congress Hall—gorgeous caravansary, with its wide and famous corridors (into which you set your boots at night and never see them again), has brought out all the McFlimseys and O'Flannigans, and d—d fools generally who have nothing to do and want some place to go and do it in. Congress Hall has much to answer for in the splendid facilities it affords for the display of affluent and effluent folly. Its spacious piazzas and its roomy parlors are provocative of promenading, and the temptation to attract attention and show off, no matter in how ridiculous a guise, seems irresistible to the fair votaries of fashion. Such exhibitions one seldom sees in this work-day world, and never out of Saratoga.

And above and beyond all, the pannier! Never saw I such a sight before—(nor behind, either, for that matter).

The sylph-like maiden of the present season is humped like a camel, and not altogether unlike a whale.

Pannier, you must know, is French for anything that sticks out. Steel, whalebone and stuffing enter into its composition. Regular as evening sets in, the curious and meditative guests seat themselves in position to view the pannier-ama.

Indeed there is much to see and considerable to learn. The Grecian bend first attracts attention. This is achieved by hoisting the shoulders into the ear, throwing the chin upward, the chest forward, and the trunk backward, and dangling the little hands from the waistband like a kangaroo's fore paws. It is rumored that a species of martingale is worn to bring about the most stylish Grecian, while others absolutely hold that sticking plaster is used to maintain the unnatural position. Practised in the wilds it would be bad enough; but "oh, it is pitiful near a whole city full."

Why do not the clergy, who have so earnestly preached against the Black Crook take the Grecian bend in hand?

I noticed that very many young ladies who were not ailing when they came to the Springs, showed symptoms of the Grecian soon after their arrival, and secured it chronically before leaving.

It surely was put on; I cannot believe 'tis the natural effect of the waters. To tell the truth, I've sometimes felt that way myself, but I generally took peppermint for it, and got some one to rub my stomach with warm red flannel.

Is it definitely settled that the Girl of the Period must distress her color with the Grecian? Will the coming woman—as well as the going one—wear a pannier? Can nothing be done for them?"

Pendletonian Statesmanship.

"And then comes along Pendleton, another financier, and he informs us that the war for the suppression of the rebellion has cost him and every other Democrat $74 28. [Laughter.] Now, this is a statement for him! While the whole country, from Maine to the Gulf, is profoundly agitated with the present and future of our land; while every heart beats with solicitude to know what fate the future has in store for us; while the widow mourns the husband lost at Antietam; while the mother weeps over the son who fell in the Valley; while the orphan mourns the father who went down in the Cumberland, gallantly fighting to the last, George H. Pendleton was 'doing his sum.'

George H. Pendleton was calculating to the farthing how many coppers it cost the Copperheads to have their rebellion put down, [cheers] and that is what the Democrats call statesmanship. That is what they mean by keeping the eyes of the country on debt and taxation. Oh, Pennsylvania, you cannot, you will not forget the countless lives lost on the hundred fields for the preservation of the Union! But it was reserved for Pendleton to recount the pecuniary sacrifice it cost him to have our triumph achieved.

Think of Benjamin Franklin counting the cost of the Declaration of Independence. Imagine William Pitt counting how many pennies Waterloo cost England. Think, if you can, of Carnot counting the value of the life Dessaix gave to France on the field of Marengo. And then the Democratic statesman goes all the way to Maine to utter his lamentations over the severe sacrifice he made of seventy-four dollars and twenty-eight cents [Laughter.] But as his sacrifices were only pecuniary, they are not yet beyond the reach of consolation, and therefore I have great pleasure in saying to him, in the name of the soldiers and sailors—the men who have made unnumbered sacrifices—that we are ready to indemnify Pendleton and all other peace men at the rate of $74 28 a head, payable in Confederate money."

MAGNITUDE OF LONDON.—Its houses number more than 350,000, and its streets if placed in line, would extend from Liverpool to New York, and are lighted at night by 360,000 gas lamps, consuming in every twenty-four hours 13,000,000 cubic feet of gas. Of the water supply, 44,383,328 gallons per day. The traveling public sustain 5,000 cabs and 1,500 omnibusses, besides all the other sorts of vehicles which human need can require or human wit can invent. Its hungry population devour in the course of every year 1,600,000 quarters of wheat, 240,000 bullocks, 1,700,000 sheep, 28,000 calves, 35,000 pigs, 10,000,000 head of game, 3,000,000 salmon, and innumerable fish of other sorts, and consume 13,200,000 gallons of beer, 2,000,000 gallons of spirits and 65,000 pipes of wine. As a consequence, 2,400 doctors find constant employment. London, finally, supports 852 churches which are presided over by 930 divines of greater or less note.—The Nation.

DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

Although the fame of this renowned invigorant rests mainly on its astonishing cures of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint and intestinal disorders, it is equally efficacious in nervous complaints. Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility and all peculiar disturbances and derangements to which, as a sex, they are subject. It cheers and lightens the depressed mental powers as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any unpleasant reaction. Sold by all Druggists and dealers everywhere.

TO THE ENTERPRISING
Farmers of Oregon!
CASTONS'S X-L-SIOR
BROAD-CAST GRAIN-SOWER.

THIS VALUABLE LABOR-SAVING MACHINE, which has already been adopted in nearly every Agricultural county in the State of California and in every county where it has been presented, has been brought to Portland by who holds the exclusive right to the same for the State of Oregon; and is now ready to accommodate the farmers of this State with machines, and to sell county rights to manufacture the same.

This machine saves the entire cost and labor of sowing a field excepting the cost of a machine—the same team being used for sowing and harrowing as is used for harrowing alone, the farmer or his boy riding and driving his team, instead of walking and carrying his heavy sack, and then walking and dragging his grain in.

The inventor of this valuable aid to farmers is a man of large experience in seeding machines, and has happily succeeded in this invention, in producing a machine which, while it carries the farmer as if on a sulky, sows wheat, barley, oats and peas with greater regularity than the same can be sown by hand; and at the same time the harrow attached to it, immediately behind, covers the grain and the labor is done. Any intelligent farmer who has ever carried a sack and sowed grain will readily see that the X-L-SIOR Grain Sower will save its entire cost in labor alone—to say nothing of its saving in seed—in sowing comparatively but few acres; and we have placed an improper estimate upon the enterprise of our Oregon farmers if this machine is not generally adopted in this State, as it has already been in California, and where the farmers write to the inventors respecting it after this manner:

LINCOLN, (Placer Co.), Sept. 5, '68.

MR. H. A. GASTON—Dear Sir: I have two complete machines (X-L-SIOR) which I challenge the State to beat for sowing grain. I have not as many fingers in the shaft as you directed, but I do not want my machines to sow any better than they do. I have sowed and gauged them perfectly.
T. C. PURINGTON.

By addressing or calling upon Mr. Brusie at C. Hopkins, corner of Front and Morrison streets, in this city, machines or County Rights to manufacture and sell the machines can be purchased at reasonable rates.

EXTINGUISHER
SELF-ACTING FIRE ENGINE!

THIS INVENTION HAS FOR ITS OBJECT THE extinguishing of Fires in a more instantaneous manner than has hitherto been discovered.

The advantages to be derived from the use of the EXTINGUISHER are as follows:

Every fire begins on a small scale, and its rapid and uncontrollable increase is owing to the fact that at the time of its commencement (when every moment's delay in checking it is of the utmost importance) no means are ready at hand.

The EXTINGUISHER is the only Engine that fills this requirement.

It is always ready for use, though standing unused for years.

It puts out Fire instantly.

It saves the great deluge of water now used for this purpose.

It is as effective in the hands of a Boy as the most experienced Fireman.

It is portable, and as easily handled as a bucket of water.

It possesses within itself the power of a force pump, and as effective as a Steam Engine.

It is the only known invention that will put out Fires from Kerosene, Tar, Naphthaline, and combustible materials now in common use.

PRICE—No. 1, $50; No. 2, $55; No. 3, $60.

HIRAM SMITH'S
Ophthalmic Panacea!

IS WITHOUT DOUBT THE MOST WONDERFUL EYE HEALER that has yet been discovered.

It CURES the most stubborn and hopeless cases of CHRONIC INFLAMMATIONS, GRANULATED LIDS, FILMS, &c., as has been sufficiently demonstrated during the few months in which it has been brought into public notice. The proprietor is so fully convinced of its INFALLIBILITY that he WARRANTS A CURE OR REFUNDS THE MONEY. It can do the eyes no harm, and a trial of it is therefore without injury or expense to the patient if a cure is not effected.

It has cured cases of FIVE, SIX, NINE, FIFTEEN, and even EIGHTEEN YEARS' standing in Harrisburg, Linn county, Oregon, and its vicinity, to which the following persons will bear witness:

E. B. MOORE, NATHANIEL BELL,
A. L. WALLACE, G. E. WARD,
Mrs MONTGOMERY, JOHN M. HOLLOWAY,
W. D. PORTER, ROB'T RAMSEY,
And others in that vicinity.

Persons afflicted with the distressing scourge of diseased eyes are advised to give this remedy a fair trial on the NO CURE, NO PAY and NO INJURY plan.

TO ALL WHO ARE INTERESTED IN THE TRIUMPH OF REPUBLICAN PRINCIPLES

THE "IRISH REPUBLIC" NEWSPAPER, PUBlished in New York City, is devoted to the promulgation of the principles of the Republican party. It is now engaged in a bitter and most arduous struggle with all the reactionary elements which have so long controlled the votes of adopted citizens of Irish birth. Its circulation and influence are being widely extended, but as in all such enterprises, the results are all consumed in the efforts at maintaining and extending that influence. The paper is a large and handsome Weekly, published at a subscription price of five dollars per annum. We propose to devote our columns to the great work of the pending campaign. We will send the Irish Republic for four months, for ONE DOLLAR, in packages of ten and upwards.

DAVID BELL, LL. D.,
MICHAEL SCANLAN,
MAJ. JAMES HAGGERTY,
Editors of the Irish Republic.

We heartily concur in recommending the Irish Republic as an efficient and able ally of the Republican party. We believe its circulation as suggested will do great good to the cause.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.
NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES
Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies so that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his special study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes; pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to affect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders, who, with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen, and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory, and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians, in eight cases out of ten, are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patient's letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, near Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 252.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 252 ON THE LETTER.
Consultations FREE.
